All walkers should have minimum donations regardless of age (see front of form).

WHAT IS THE CHARITY WALK? In 1974, the Hawaii Lodging & Tourism Association sponsored a charitable "Superwalk" to benefit one major organization. In 1979, the walk was extended to all major Hawaiian Islands and became The Visitor Industry CHARITY WALK. Over the years, the annual walk has grown to become one of the largest single day fund-raising events in the State. All funds raised at the Hawai'i Island Visitor Industry CHARITY WALK stays in Hawai'i Island, benefiting all eligible Hawai'i Island non-profit organizations.
